- HISTORY -

The Truro Golf Course is one of the premier golf courses in central Nova Scotia.

Founded in 1903, the Truro Golf Club is in its second century of great golf.

Originally a simple 9 hole layout, in 1930 the course was remodeled into a championship 9 hole layout by the famous golf course architect Stanley Thompson. It was expanded to 18 holes in 1967 and was again renovated in 1985 and 2009 to its present championship configuration.

It has been host to many tournaments over the years including the inaugural Maritime Amateur Championship in 1911, the 1975 Peter Jackson Championship, numerous Nova Scotia Amateur (latest in 2011) and Senior Amateur Championships, the Canadian Senior Championship in 1997 and the Canadian Senior Match-play Championship in 2003. Recently, the 2012 World Blind Championships were hosted at The Jewel of the Hub.

As a true member's club, we cater to our members through offering a quality golf course, a variety of member programs all in a fun accessible atmosphere.
