Stanley Thompson

Golf Course architect Stanley Thompson (1893-1953) was a genius who left his mark on the Canadian landscape from coast to coast and further afield in the Caribbean, USA and Central America. His 'larger than life' persona resulted in an exceptional contribution to the golf world that has passed the test of time, landing him in the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame. It's rumoured that on site visits during course construction, started and ended at the bar...
